LEAD OFFICER	CHIEF FIRE OFFICER
RECOMMENDATIONS	(a) That the Authority considers the contents of report CSCPC/19/2 (attached at Appendix A to this report) alongside any recommendations made by the Community Safety & Corporate Planning Committee in relation to proposed options for public consultation on the reallocation of resources under the Service Delivery Operating Model; and (b) that report CSCPC/19/3 (attached at Appendix B to this report) on the consultation process to be undertaken be noted.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	The Devon and Somerset Fire & Rescue Service (“the Service”) has undertaken a comprehensive strategic risk analysis of the fire and rescue related risks faced by its communities through the IRMP process. This has been supported by the organisational risk analysis detailed in the Fire and Rescue Plan. This strategic risk analysis has identified that changes to the current Service Delivery Operating Model are required. At its meeting on 27 June 2019, the Authority’s Community Safety & Corporate Planning Committee will consider and make recommendations to the Authority on options for public consultation on the potential for reallocation of resources under the Service Delivery Operating Model.
RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS	As set out within the report.
EQUALITY RISKS AND BENEFITS ANALYSIS (ERBA)	The options set out in report CSCPC/19 2 (attached as Appendix A to this report) will be subject to rigorous consultation with staff, the public and representative bodies.
